Novel Way to Put Out a Fire.
F. P. Hills, cashier of the Delaware (O.) Savings bank, saved a 300 foot trestle on the Pennsylvania railroad from burning the other morning by carrying water in his derby hat, says the New York Times. While visiting his farm north of town Hills discovered that the trestle was on fire. The water barrels placed near by the company were filled, but no buckets were at hand. Taking his new fall hat and carrying water in it for almost an hour, he put out the blaze just a short time before an express train went by at a speed of a mile a minute.

Odd Epitaphs.
On a newly erected memorial stone in Yarmouth, England, appears this inscription: "In memory of —, who died of disease contracted in South Africa. The Lord be praised." With shire, England, has this epitaph: "Beneath this soil a lump of clay lies Arabella Young, who on the 24th of May began to hold her tongue."

THE COOKBOOK.

Bacon fat imparts a delicious flavor to chicken if used for basting or frying.

When making cakes try greasing the tins with olive oil instead of with butter. You will find that the cakes turn out better.

The secret of making corn meat gems so that they are light and digestible lies in scalding the meal thoroughly, in mixing quickly and putting in a very hot oven immediately.

Delicious sandwiches are made of whole wheat bread into which hazel-nut meats were stirred before baking. Cut the bread in thin slices and spread with butter and orange marmalade.

The water in which corned beef is cooked should on no account be thrown away. After the hot corned beef is taken from the table, to be afterward eaten cold, put it in a stone jar and pour the pot liquor over it. Keep the beef in the liquor until the last of it has been eaten. If hash is made use the liquor to moisten it in the spider.

VOICE CULTURE.

Don't breathe through the mouth, but through the nose, and inhale as deeply as possible.

Don't whine and don't become hyper-critical or you will probably have a harsh, rasping voice.

Don't imagine that beauty, dress, manner, vivacity, style or wit can compensate for a poor voice.

Don't expect to speak clearly unless you hold up your head and open your throat as well as your mouth.

Don't take life too seriously if you want a melodious voice. Relax the strained muscles of the face and neck and look and be happy and contented. Think of pleasant things.

Don't try always to speak in a "sweet, low voice." Cultivate variety. Let the tones be gay, warm, vivacious. Don't push the sound out with the throat. Enunciate clearly with the lips. Sustain tone with the diaphragm. The vocal chords will then vibrate musically.

Buses in Paris Again.

The recent accident in the metropolitan tube in Paris has had the effect of frightening away a very considerable part of the public which used to patronize it. The immediate result is a resuscitation of the bus. Several of the lines went out of business several months ago, being unable to compete with the underground, but such is the renewed call for them that the old vehicles are rapidly being put into service again.

ACKNOWLEDGED IT.

Barre Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After the reader has read the public statement of this representative citizen of Barre given below, he must fairly, squarely and honestly come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the party in good health since, can be called upon to perform the same work under similar circumstances. Read this:

Veteran Geo. W. Hunt (retired), Miles Block, says: "When I went to E. A. Brown's drug store in the winter of 1897, for Doan's Kidney Pills I had been subject to attacks of dragging, heavy pains in the small of my back, extending downwards. They were particularly in evidence after a hard day's work or if I exerted myself in any way. Many a night Mrs. Hunt has rubbed my back with liniments and applied hot water for the slight ease those makeshifts afforded. I was so pleased at the respite I received from the almost constant pain that when Doan's Kidney Pills stopped it I endorsed them publicly. I have had no reason to alter my opinion in the interim. I can add to my own experience that of others who have used Doan's Kidney Pills and are just as enthusiastic about the benefit received as I."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
